About LANGUAGECERT®

LANGUAGECERT® is a business name of PeopleCert Qualifications Ltd, UK company number 0962026, subsidiary of PeopleCert Group (PeopleCert).

LANGUAGECERT® is an awarding organisation regulated by Ofqual and offers language qualifications that are globally recognised and aligned to the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR) at levels A1 to C2. LANGUAGECERT® delivers language qualifications through a network of approved test centres worldwide.

LANGUAGECERT® combines language qualification heritage with unparalleled exam administration systems and processes, and excellent customer service. For the dissemination and delivery of high-quality language qualifications, LANGUAGECERT® relies on the capabilities and systems developed and deployed by its sister companies within PeopleCert.

About PeopleCert

Established in 2000, PeopleCert is one of the leading players in the global certification industry, partnering with educational institutions, multinational organisations and governmental bodies for the development and management of globally recognised qualifications and the delivery of their related exams.

Equal opportunities

PeopleCert fully supports the principle of equal opportunities and is committed to satisfying this principle in all its activities and published material.

The aim of LANGUAGECERT® is to produce assessments that are based solely on the requirements of the qualification, and that do not discriminate against any group of learners. No group of learners should be put at a disadvantage by encountering questions or tests which are biased or might cause offence. Assessment material should not discriminate against any group on the grounds of culture, gender, age, disability, ethnic background, nationality, religion and belief, marital status, gender identification, social class or employment status.

Please refer to LANGUAGECERT®'s Equality and Diversity Policy on LANGUAGECERT®'s official website, languagecert.org.

1 LANGUAGECERT® Academic and LANGUAGECERT® General qualifications

1.1 Purpose of the LANGUAGECERT® Academic Qualification Handbook

The LANGUAGECERT® Academic qualification handbook provides a comprehensive introduction to the LANGUAGECERT® system, comprising LANGUAGECERT® Academic and LANGUAGECERT® General. It also serves as a reference point for test centres, teachers, test takers and other stakeholders involved in the delivery of LANGUAGECERT® Academic.

There is a separate qualification handbook for LANGUAGECERT® General.

1.2 The LANGUAGECERT® System (LS)

The LANGUAGECERT® System (LS) derives from an extensive item bank of calibrated material (across A1 to C2 levels) supported by validation research based on an established candidature aligned to a common underlying measurement scale.

The LS contains two four-skill multi-level tests: LANGUAGECERT® Academic and LANGUAGECERT® General, which are recognised and regulated by the English and Welsh qualification regulators, Ofqual and Qualifications Wales.

Test	Skills	CEFR level	Equivalent UK (England and Wales) national levels
LANGUAGECERT® Academic	Listening, Reading, Writing and Speaking	B1 Breakthrough	Entry 3
		B2 Vantage	Level 1
		C1 Effective Operational Proficiency	Level 2
		C2 Mastery	Level 3
LANGUAGECERT® General	Listening, Reading, Writing and Speaking	A2 Waystage	Entry 2
		B1 Breakthrough	Entry 3
		B2 Vantage	Level 1
		C1 Effective Operational Proficiency	Level 2

Both tests offer a communicative approach to the testing of Listening, Reading, Writing and Speaking across the CEFR levels appropriate to the domain.

LANGUAGECERT® General and LANGUAGECERT® Academic are designed for candidates who are not native speakers of English and who wish to achieve a high quality, internationally recognised qualification in English that is available and recognised worldwide.

LANGUAGECERT® Academic

The LANGUAGECERT® Academic test is for candidates seeking to study in tertiary education. Test content is tailored for academic study at undergraduate, postgraduate or professional level.

The test measures a range of skills and competences appropriate for academic study in an English-medium setting: reading and listening for gist or for a detailed understanding of a range of written and audio sources including academic articles, lectures, podcasts, interviews, discussions; writing reports, articles and essays for an academic purpose; giving presentations; reading aloud; or taking part in a discussion.

LANGUAGECERT® General

The LANGUAGECERT® General test is for candidates seeking to migrate for work or vocational purposes. Test content is tailored to those wanting to live, work, study or train in an English-speaking context.

The test measures a range of skills and competences appropriate for personal, occupational and vocational contexts: reading and listening for gist or for a detailed understanding of a range of written and audio sources including adverts, articles, websites, diaries, radio programs, podcasts; writing in formal and informal registers; expressing viewpoints; or interacting in real-life scenarios (through the use of role-plays).

LANGUAGECERT® General and LANGUAGECERT® Academic measure proficiency in the same way, to the same scale, using the same task types. The two tests have been designed and developed according to the same standard procedures. The test delivery processes and scoring methods are identical.

1.3 Introduction to LANGUAGECERT® Academic

Students entering university for undergraduate or postgraduate study require general academic language proficiency and skills. General (i.e., not discipline specific) academic language proficiency and skills refer to the type of language that students are exposed to during their first year(s) at university, in college foundational levels, or on pathway programmes. These proficiencies and skills include, for example, understanding generic academic vocabulary relevant to most domains; aspects of academic expression (e.g., formality of style) used across common academic tasks (e.g., writing essays, giving presentations); understanding textual conventions typically used in higher education; oral presentation skills; the ability to locate specific information; infer views and standpoints which may not always be overtly stated; note-taking; and critical thinking skills (including identifying and formulating arguments).

The overall objective of the LANGUAGECERT® Academic qualification is to provide candidates with a qualification that they can use primarily for entrance purposes to higher education institutions running English-medium courses in English-speaking countries, and in countries where English is not a first language but where the ability to speak, write and understand verbal and written general academic English is required. The qualification is suitable for:

- non-native speakers of English who:
 - are 17 years of age or older
 - wish to acquire an internationally recognised certification of their English language competence
 - wish to undertake an undergraduate or postgraduate course of study at an English-speaking university or college and require evidence of their English proficiency;
- universities and colleges that:
 - need to establish the English language level of students to evaluate their ability to follow their chosen course of study
 - wish to offer students a test which will provide them with an internationally recognised certification of their English language competence;
- employers who:
 - wish to identify the English language level of their applicants
 - require an internationally recognised certification as part of their hiring process.

Entry requirements

There are no prior learning requirements that candidates must achieve/have prior to taking LANGUAGECERT® Academic. However, it is important that test centres provide information and advise test takers on the most suitable qualification according to their individual needs.

Pricing

Pricing for LANGUAGECERT® Academic is country specific. Information can be found on the LANGUAGECERT® website.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is not applicable to LANGUAGECERT® Academic.

Total Qualification Time (TQT) and Guided Learning Hours (GLH)

The term 'Guided Learning Hours' is defined as the hours of guided learning under the immediate guidance or supervision of a lecturer, supervisor, tutor or other appropriate provider of education or training.

'Total Qualification Time' is the number of notional hours which represent an estimate of the total amount of time that could reasonably be expected to be required in order for a learner to achieve and demonstrate the achievement of the level of attainment necessary for the award of a qualification.

With regard to Guided Learning Hours, LANGUAGECERT® is consistent with CEFR references which assign approximate values to levels of ESOL qualifications. As highlighted by the Association of Language Testers in Europe (ALTE), as a learner advances up the levels, the number of hours to attain each level increases, this being evidence of the continual nature of language learning.

CEFR Level and UK national Levels (England and Wales)	Guided Learning Hours (GLH)	Total Qualification Time (TQT)
A1 – Entry 1	95 hours	200 hours
A2 – Entry 2	95 hours	200 hours
B1 – Entry 3	180 hours	300 hours
B2 – Level 1	180 hours	300 hours
C1 – Level 2	200 hours	350 hours
C2 – Level 3	250 hours	350 hours

Please note that the above figures are estimates of numbers of hours a learner is reasonably likely to undertake with reference to each respective level of the qualification, not cumulative estimates across levels.

LANGUAGECERT® liaises with its centres and users to ensure that appropriate and consistent numbers of study hours are assigned to its qualifications.

1.4 Qualification titles

The table below outlines the level names, full titles and qualification numbers for all LANGUAGECERT® Academic certificates.

LANGUAGECERT® and CEFR levels	Qualification Title	Ofqual Qualification Number
Achiever (B1)	LanguageCert Entry Level Certificate in ESOL International (Entry 3) (Listening, Reading, Writing, Speaking) (LanguageCert Academic B1)	610/1456/4
Communicator (B2)	LanguageCert Level 1 Certificate in ESOL International (Listening, Reading, Writing, Speaking) (LanguageCert Academic B2)	610/1457/6
Expert (C1)	LanguageCert Level 2 Certificate in ESOL International (Listening, Reading, Writing, Speaking) (LanguageCert Academic C1)	610/1458/8
Mastery (C2)	LanguageCert Level 3 Certificate in ESOL International (Listening, Reading, Writing, Speaking) (LanguageCert Academic C2)	610/1459/X

The full qualification titles identify the level of each qualification inclusive of the LANGUAGECERT®, CEFR, England and Wales levels.

The name of each examination and appropriate CEFR level appear on each certificate.

1.5 Alignment of LANGUAGECERT® to the CEFR

LANGUAGECERT® Academic and General scores are reported on the LANGUAGECERT® Global Scale. In turn, the LANGUAGECERT® Global Scale is mapped to the CEFR¹ and the RQF/CQFW (England and Northern Ireland/Wales) levels. The comparative levels chart below shows how the two tests and the Global Scale relate to each other and reflect the CEFR levels.

LANGUAGECERT® Global Scale	CEFR	LANGUAGECERT® General	LANGUAGECERT® Academic

1.6 'Can Do' level descriptors

LANGUAGECERT® Academic is developed according to the CEFR descriptors of language competency for each CEFR level (B1-C2).

LANGUAGECERT® and CEFR levels	Descriptors
B1 Achiever – CEFR B1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Can understand the main points of clear standard speech on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc. • Can understand the main point of many radio or TV programmes on current affairs or topics of personal or professional interest when the delivery is relatively slow and clear. • Can understand texts that consist mainly of high frequency everyday or job-related language. • Can understand the description of events, feelings and wishes in personal letters. • Can produce simple connected text on topics which are familiar or of personal interest. • Can describe experiences and events, dreams, hopes and ambitions and briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans.
B2 Communicator – CEFR B2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Can understand extended speech and lectures and follow even complex lines of argument provided the topic is reasonably familiar. • Can understand most TV news and current affairs programmes and the majority of films in standard dialect. • Can understand standard spoken language, live or broadcast, on both familiar and unfamiliar topics normally encountered in personal, social, academic or vocational life. • Can follow the essentials of lectures, talks and reports and other forms of academic/professional presentation which are propositionally and linguistically complex. • Can read articles and reports concerned with temporary problems in which the writers adopt particular attitudes or viewpoints. • Can use the language fluently, accurately and effectively on a wide range of general, academic, vocational or leisure topics, marking clearly the relationships between ideas. • Can communicate spontaneously with good grammatical control without much sign of having to restrict what he/she wants to say, adopting a level of formality appropriate to the circumstances.
C1 Expert – CEFR C1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Can understand extended speech even when it is not clearly structured and when relationships are only implied and not signalled explicitly. • Can understand long and complex factual and literary texts, appreciating distinctions of style. • Can understand specialised articles and longer technical instructions, relevant to various fields. • Can understand a wide range of demanding, longer texts, and recognise implicit meaning.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Can express him/herself fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions. • Can use language flexibly and effectively for social, academic and professional purposes. • Can produce clear, well-structured, detailed text on complex subjects, showing controlled use of organisational patterns, connectors and cohesive devices.
C2 Mastery – CEFR C2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Can understand with ease any kind of spoken language, whether live or broadcast, even when delivered at fast native speed, provided there is a familiarity with the accent. • Can read with ease virtually all forms of the written language, including abstract, structurally or linguistically complex texts such as manuals, specialised articles and literary works. • Can express him/herself spontaneously, very fluently and precisely, differentiating finer shades of meaning even in more complex situations.

1.7 Overview of scoring

LANGUAGECERT® Academic is stringently assessed against the criteria as detailed in the syllabus. Test takers receive a score on the Global Scale (0-100) per skill (Listening, Reading, Writing and Speaking) and an overall score and CEFR level. The final score is the average of the four skills and all skills carry equal weight.

More specifically, the test taker receives a score on the LANGUAGECERT® Global Scale (0–100). The Global Scale (0–100) is aligned to the six levels (A1–C2) of foreign language mastery as set out in the scale of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR):

LANGUAGECERT® Global Scale	CEFR	LANGUAGECERT® General	LANGUAGECERT® Academic
90-100	C2		90+
75-89	C1	75+	75-89
60-74	B2	60-74	60-74
40-59	B1	40-59	40-59
20-39	A2	20-39
10-19	A1
0-9	Below A1

1.8 Qualification format

LANGUAGECERT® Academic is available as a computer-based and a paper-based test. The computer-based test is the default option.

Advantages of LANGUAGECERT® Academic

Integrity of total external assessment

All exams are externally set by LANGUAGECERT® and are assessed by a group of approved trained markers who are regularly standardised and benchmarked against the CEFR. Results issuance follows a stringent process which ensures consistency and objectivity of assessment and reliable scores.

Ofqual recognition

LANGUAGECERT® is an Awarding Organisation recognised and regulated by Ofqual. Ofqual is a non-ministerial government department that regulates qualifications, exams and tests in England. Ofqual is independent of government and reports directly to the UK Parliament.

UK Home Office recognition

LANGUAGECERT® is authorized by UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI), to deliver Home Office approved, Secure English Language Tests (SELTs) in the UK and globally. UKVI is the part of the Home Office which runs the UK's visa service. LANGUAGECERT® Academic is a secure, reliable, trusted and attractive choice for candidates applying for UK visas where English language ability must be demonstrated.

Those who need to prove their English language ability as part of their application to UK Visas and Immigration should visit the UK Government website to find out more about English language requirements for migration to the UK:

<https://www.gov.uk/guidance/prove-your-english-language-abilities-with-a-secure-english-language-test-selt>

Australian Government Department of Home Affairs recognition

LANGUAGECERT® Academic is approved by the Australian Government Department of Home Affairs as an accepted English language test for all visa categories that require proof of English proficiency. These include visas for living, working, or studying in Australia.

Applicants who need to demonstrate their English skills for a visa should visit the Department of Home Affairs website to see how LANGUAGECERT® Academic scores align with the English language requirements set by the Australian Government:

<https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/help-support/meeting-our-requirements/english-language>

International recognition

LANGUAGECERT®'s International English Qualifications (IEQs) are quality English language exams recognised by employers, educational institutions and professional bodies worldwide for both academic progression and employment.

Relevance

The tasks are sufficiently universal to suit all language learning styles and preparation methods. Exam content authentically replicates real-life general academic English in use. LANGUAGECERT® makes use of several methods, including human vetting and statistical analysis, in an effort to minimise bias.

2 Syllabus

The syllabi show the standards which a learner must achieve to achieve the four levels of the test. For each level, the standards are shown for Listening, Reading, Writing and Speaking. The standards must be read in conjunction with the sections showing the grammar tested at each level and the functions and topics used and tested at each level. These follow the set of standards for each level.

The standards set out in the following pages are cumulative. That is, an B1 candidate, for example, will be able to carry out the standards set out for A1, A2 and B1. Similarly, a C2 candidate will be able to meet the standards of all lower levels (A1–C1) in addition to the C2 standards.

Suitable topics, language functions and language skills for a test of Academic English are selected from the lists below; that said, not all of the 'syllabus' below will be covered in the test versions.

2.1 Preliminary level – A1

Listening

The candidate will be able to:

- follow carefully and slowly articulated speech which contains long pauses and repetition to allow the listener to process the information
- follow short conversations in everyday situations on topics concerning self, family and immediate surroundings, and understand gist, context and the relationship between speakers
- understand very simple questions, statements, accounts, narratives and single-step instructions spoken carefully and slowly
- follow short, simple directions and explanations
- identify the function of short utterances (see Grammar and Functions sections which follow)
- extract key information from conversations to complete a simple task.

Phonological features

The candidate will be able to:

- listen for phonological detail to distinguish between similar words.

Range

The candidate will be able to:

- understand key grammatical forms used in very common everyday familiar contexts
- recognise familiar words and very basic phrases concerning self, family and immediate concrete surroundings.

Understanding gist

The candidate will be able to:

- understand the main ideas of short explanations and conversations
- identify speakers, context and topic of short conversations.

Understanding detail

The candidate will be able to:

- extract key words, numbers and spellings from short statements and explanations.

Reading

The candidate will be able to:

- understand very short simple narratives and descriptions, single-step instructions, simple directions, and simple explanations a single phrase at a time with time to re-read for confirmation and/or clarification
- recognise the purposes of short texts where the purpose and intended audience is clear
- locate specific information in short texts
- understand viewpoints if made clearly and simply.

Range

The candidate will be able to:

- understand very familiar names, words and phrases in simple common texts found in everyday life context
- understand isolated words, short simple phrases and grammatical structures that link clauses and help identify time reference
- understand the meanings conveyed by capital letters and full stops in very simple sentences.

Register

The candidate will be able to:

- understand simple social courtesies.

Text structure

The candidate will be able to:

- understand the organisational, lexical and grammatical features of short simple texts
- recognise different purposes of simple texts through layout conventions, common signs and symbols.

Speaking

The candidate will be able to:

- interact in a simple way provided the other person is prepared to repeat or rephrase things at a slower rate of speech
- initiate and respond to simple statements about personal details, in areas of immediate need or on very familiar topics
- communicate in a very limited range of social situations using a basic range of functional language
- exchange information to perform a task
- describe and explain familiar topics and simple routines
- give single-step instructions and directions in familiar contexts
- ask and answer simple questions
- produce simple phrases to express likes, dislikes and preferences in relation to familiar topics
- contribute points to a discussion, provided the other speakers are co-operative.

Pronunciation

The candidate will be able to:

- pronounce with sufficient clarity a limited repertoire of words and phrases so they can be understood by a sympathetic listener.

Accuracy

The candidate will be able to:

- display a limited control of very basic grammatical structures.

Range

The candidate will be able to:

- produce simple phrases and sentences to give basic information about and descriptions of familiar people and places, feelings and opinions.

Register

The candidate will be able to:

- cope appropriately, with support from the other person, in a limited range of familiar social situations.

Fluency

The candidate will be able to:

- manage the conventions of turn taking in very simple interactions
- use a very limited range of connectors to link utterances.

Writing

The candidate will be able to:

- write to communicate simple information to a sympathetic reader
- compose simple sentences to communicate ideas or basic information about a topic connected to personal information or knowledge
- write a short letter, card, postcard and message using simple phrases and sentences to communicate ideas and basic information about themselves, where they live and what they do
- write very simple descriptions, accounts and routines, single-step instructions and directions in familiar contexts
- express likes, dislikes and preferences in relation to familiar topics
- use punctuation and capital letters correctly to show beginnings and ends of sentences, proper nouns, personal pronoun 'I'
- spell correctly personal key words and familiar words
- construct simple phrases and sentences using only basic grammatical structures
- use a basic range of vocabulary to deal with simple and familiar topics and tasks
- write simple sentences on familiar topics
- write a short sequence of simple sentences to form a basic message.

2.6 Mastery level – C2

Listening

The candidate will be able to:

- understand virtually everything spoken even when delivery is fast
- follow short conversations both formal and informal in a comprehensive range of situations, understanding gist, context, purpose, function and recognising subtly expressed attitudes, feelings and opinions
- understand sophisticated narratives, sequences, explanations and subtle arguments
- recognise the function of short utterances which may contain idiomatic/colloquial English (see Grammar and Functions sections)
- follow a discussion which may be academic or professional to identify gist, detail, purposes and key ideas and distinguish between fact and opinion
- extract and reproduce key information from announcements, media broadcasts, presentations and lectures on abstract and concrete topics of general, academic and professional interest
- follow a complex argument even when it is not clearly structured.

Phonological features

The candidate will be able to:

- consistently recognise how subtle changes of intonation, pitch and/or stress affect meaning
- consistently recognise subtle expressions of feelings, moods, attitudes, important points and opinions expressed through stress, pitch and intonation.

Range

The candidate will be able to:

- understand ideas, arguments and descriptions regardless of their structure and considerable complexity
- understand a very wide range of vocabulary including terms used in academic and professional discourse.

Register

The candidate will be able to:

- consistently recognise degrees of subtle distinction used by speakers in different types of utterances.

Understanding gist

The candidate will be able to:

- consistently understand the main ideas of complex extended discourse even when the topic is unfamiliar.

Understanding detail

The candidate will be able to:

- consistently extract most points of detail from extended discourse even when the topic is unfamiliar.

Reading

The candidate will be able to:

- understand with ease virtually all types of authentic written texts of different purposes/style and those dense in complex structures
- understand the main ideas of all forms of written language, including lengthy abstract, structurally or linguistically complex texts or highly idiomatic, literary and non-literary writing on a wide range of professional, academic and social topics
- gather specific information from different parts of a text or from different texts
- understand descriptions and narratives in which language is used to create different sophisticated and subtle effects
- understand lengthy texts containing complex instructions or explanations on specialist subjects
- understand texts concerned with contemporary issues in which the writers adopt particular viewpoints, identifying finer points of attitude and implied opinions, and follow complex lines of reasoning.

Range

The candidate will be able to:

- understand a wide range of texts, hardly ever being impeded by any lexical features
- understands almost all grammatical structures and features.

Register

The candidate will be able to:

- understand subtleties in the use of register across a wide range of situations even those involving tact and diplomacy.

Text structure

The candidate will be able to:

- recognise how textual features are used to achieve purposes in texts including those containing images, graphical and tabular data
- understand the different ways in which meaning is built up in abstract, structurally or linguistically complex texts
- understand a full range of discourse markers adapted to context and register.

Speaking

The candidate will be able to:

- display a comprehensive and reliable mastery of the language with no sign of having to restrict what is said
- communicate personal information, feelings, ideas and opinions on a very wide range of topics including contemporary issues
- communicate in all situations using a very wide range of language functions
- engage in discussion to express and elicit opinion, defend and justify opinions when challenged, persuade someone to a point of view, try to reach agreement or perform a specific task
- provide sophisticated explanations, descriptions, narratives, account for or report on a complex subject, convey subtleties of meaning, integrate sub-themes and come to an appropriate conclusion.

Pronunciation

The candidate will be able to:

- articulate correctly and use stress and intonation patterns naturally to highlight, emphasise, and modify meaning.

Accuracy

The candidate will be able to:

- maintain consistent grammatical control of complex language.

Range

The candidate will be able to:

- display a good command of idiomatic expressions and colloquialisms with awareness of connotative levels of meaning, conveying subtleties by using a wide range of modification devices.

Register

The candidate will be able to:

- adjust register appropriately across a range of situations unhampered by linguistic limitations.

Fluency

The candidate will be able to:

- produce clearly flowing, well-structured speech with an effective logical management of the discourse, highlighting significant points
- produce coherent and cohesive discourse using a variety of organisational patterns, a wide range of connectors and other cohesive devices and backtracking and reformulating seamlessly.
- interact skilfully and confidently with fully natural turn taking, referencing and allusion making.

Writing

The candidate will be able to:

- write well-structured texts on complex or abstract subjects
- write clear, smoothly flowing, complex formal letters, reports or articles in styles fully appropriate to purpose and target readership
- describe or narrate in an assured natural manner consistently maintaining the style appropriate to purpose
- develop cogent and smoothly flowing arguments
- use all punctuation marks accurately and effectively
- spell correctly words used in more specialised contexts such as business, academic and international affairs
- maintain consistent control of complex grammatical structures
- use a very wide range of vocabulary demonstrating ability to distinguish between finer shades of meaning
- use idioms appropriately and naturally
- use a full range of structures to achieve different styles and purposes
- consistently use appropriate register in a wide range of contexts including those requiring sensitive and tactful responses
- use a range of linguistic devices to create coherent and cohesive writing
- structure texts logically using linguistic markers to enable the reader to understand significant points.

3 Overview of assessment

LANGUAGECERT®'s Academic and General tests measure all four skills: listening, reading, writing, and speaking. Both report performance across a range of CEFR levels and score against the LANGUAGECERT® Global Scale (from 0 to 100).

All Examiners are approved by LANGUAGECERT® and undergo rigorous and frequent training and standardisation, to ensure that grades are awarded strictly in accordance with CEFR levels and LANGUAGECERT® examination requirements.

The Global Scale reports against the CEFR levels as shown in the following table:

LANGUAGECERT® Global Scale	CEFR	LANGUAGECERT® General	LANGUAGECERT® Academic
90-100	C2		90+
75-89	C1	75+	75-89
60-74	B2	60-74	60-74
40-59	B1	40-59	40-59
20-39	A2	20-39
10-19	A1
0-9	Below A1

Results are reported for performance in each skill and overall. Therefore, a candidate is not only described as having, for example, 'B2 ability', but a more precise level of detail is provided via scores on the LANGUAGECERT® Global Scale as well as personalised feedback on candidate performance.

Listening and Reading

- Responses in the Reading and Listening tests are automatically marked by computer.

Writing

- The Writing tasks are marked against criteria aligned to the descriptors of the CEFR. These criteria are Task Achievement, Accuracy and Range of Grammar, Accuracy and Range of Vocabulary and Organisation (Coherence).
- Candidate performance is marked on each criterion. 0–8 marks are awarded by examiners on each criterion for each Task. Task 1 is then weighted to 40% of the total marks for Writing, and Task 2 is weighted to 60% of the total marks for Writing.
- Candidates do not receive any credit for off-topic responses.

Criteria	Description
Task Achievement	A measure of how far the candidate has achieved/addressed the task and whether or not the candidate has done what was asked.
Accuracy and Range of Grammar	A measure of the range, appropriacy and accuracy of grammar.
Accuracy and Range of Vocabulary	A measure of the range, accuracy and appropriacy of vocabulary as well as spelling accuracy.
Organisation (Coherence)	A measure of how coherently ideas are linked together in the text and how accurate the punctuation is.

Speaking

- The speaking test measures performance against the following five criteria: Task Fulfilment and Communicative Effect; Coherence; Accuracy and Range of Grammar; Accuracy and Range of Vocabulary; Pronunciation, Intonation and Fluency.

Criteria	Description
Task Fulfilment and Communicative Effect	A measure of the ability to manage the tasks adequately for the level and link the utterances into coherent speech.
Coherence	A measure of the ability to provide coherent responses, particularly over extended speech, and the linking of ideas and contributions.
Accuracy and Range of Grammar	A measure of the ability to vary and demonstrate control of grammatical structures as appropriate to the task.
Accuracy and Range of Vocabulary	A measure of the ability to vary and demonstrate control of lexis and register as appropriate to the task.
Pronunciation, Intonation and Fluency	A measure of the ability to produce the sounds of English in order to be understood with appropriate stress and intonation and maintain the flow of speech.

- Each of the four parts of the speaking examination is given equal importance.
- Candidates are awarded a mark from 0–8 for each of the five criteria. The criterion Task Fulfilment and Communicative Effect is double-weighted, and therefore the maximum raw marks a candidate can be awarded is 48. The exam is delivered in person at a distance by the interlocutor. All tests are recorded. The interlocutor awards the marks for Task Fulfilment and Communicative Effect in real time. The other examiner listens to the exam recording and awards marks for the other criteria.

4 Access arrangements

Access arrangements are reasonable adjustments, and a reasonable adjustment must be applied for using the LANGUAGECERT® Reasonable Adjustment and Special Considerations Policy.

Access arrangements allow candidates with learning difficulties, disabilities or temporary injuries to show what they know and can do without changing the demands of the assessment. Examples include: a reader to read the questions and a scribe to write the answers.

Access arrangements are agreed before an assessment. For some arrangements, including readers and scribes, centres must apply to LANGUAGECERT® for permission before the examination. Please refer to the LANGUAGECERT® Reasonable Adjustment and Special Considerations Policy for the specific timeframes to apply for permission.

For information on arrangements not listed here, please contact LANGUAGECERT®. Specific contact details are given in the LANGUAGECERT® “Contact us Guide”.

Both the LANGUAGECERT® General and LANGUAGECERT® Academic examinations assess the candidate’s ability to listen, read, write and speak in English. As a result, some access arrangements cannot be permitted. Examples are given in the table below.

Access arrangement	Definition	Listening	Reading	Writing	Speaking
Extra time		Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes
Reader	Someone who reads the questions to the candidate	Yes	No	Yes	N/A
Scribe	Someone who writes down the candidate’s dictated answers	Yes	Yes	Yes	N/A

CEFR Level	Scaled Score	Performance Descriptors (Listening, Reading, Speaking, Writing)
C2	90 - 100	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Can understand with ease any kind of spoken language, whether live or broadcast, even when delivered at fast native speed, provided there is a familiarity with the accent. Can read with ease virtually all forms of the written language, including abstract, structurally or linguistically complex texts such as manuals, specialised articles and literary works. Can write clear, smoothly flowing complex texts in an appropriate and effective style and a logical structure which helps the reader to find significant points. Can express him/herself spontaneously, very fluently and precisely, differentiating finer shades of meaning even in more complex situations.
C1	75 - 89	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Can understand extended speech even when it is not clearly structured and when relationships are only implied and not signalled explicitly. Can understand long and complex factual and literary texts, appreciating distinctions of style. Can produce clear, well-structured, detailed text on complex subjects, showing controlled use of organisational patterns, connectors and cohesive devices. Can express him/herself fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions.
B2	60 - 74	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Can understand extended speech and lectures and follow even complex lines of argument provided the topic is reasonably familiar. Can read articles and reports concerned with temporary problems in which the writers adopt particular attitudes or viewpoints. Can use the language fluently, accurately and effectively on a wide range of general, academic, vocational or leisure topics, marking clearly the relationships between ideas. Can communicate spontaneously with good grammatical control without much sign of having to restrict what he/she wants to say, adopting a level of formality appropriate to the circumstances.
B1	40 - 59	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Can understand the main points of clear standard speech on familiar matters regularly encountered in education, work and leisure, etc. Can understand texts that consist mainly of high frequency everyday or job-related language. Can produce simple connected text on topics which are familiar or of personal interest. Can describe experiences and events, dreams, hopes and ambitions and briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans.
A2	20 - 39	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Can understand phrases and the highest frequency vocabulary related to areas of most immediate personal relevance. Can read and understand very short, simple texts such as personal letters Can give a simple description of people, daily routines, likes/dislikes etc. as a short series of simple phrases and sentences linked into a list. Can write a series of simple phrases and sentences linked with simple connectors like 'and', 'but' and 'because'.
A1	10 - 19	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Can recognise very familiar words and phrases when people speak slowly. Can read and understand very simple sentences on familiar topics. Can produce simple mainly isolated phrases about people and places. Can write simple isolated phrases and sentences.
