Con tents

About

LanguageCert is an Awarding Organisation dedicated to language skills assessment and certification. It is a member of PeopleCert, a global leader in the certification industry, that delivers millions of exams in 200 countries.

VISION

To be the global leader in language qualifications

MISSION

To develop and deliver best-in-class language skills, assessment and certification programmes that enhance the lives, education and career prospects of candidates across the world

CORE VALUES

Quality, Innovation, Integrity, Passion

To exceed expectations and meet the highest quality standards, LanguageCert:

- develops its own language qualifications
- partners with renowned global organisations to offer high-quality language skills assessment
- deploys state-of-the-art, innovative and flexible exam administration technologies
- offers 24/7/365 Customer Service to language schools, teachers and candidates

LanguageCert International ESOL

LanguageCert International ESOL exams are a set of English language qualifications designed to abide by the most rigorous standards of quality and reliability.

They provide a practical and user-friendly way to assess English for work, study or leisure purposes. Written and Spoken Exams can be taken independently of each other at the candidates' convenience. They can choose the qualification CEFR level they feel ready to sit for and certificates are awarded to them upon successfully passing the exams. The following two exams cover all four language skills:

- LanguageCert International ESOL Written Exam
(Listening, Reading, Writing)
- LanguageCert International ESOL Spoken Exam
(Speaking)

The qualifications are available at six levels, from beginner to advanced (A1 – C2), and are mapped to levels of the Common European Framework (CEFR).

Written Exam	CEFR Level
• Listening	A1 – Preliminary
• Reading	A2 – Access
• Writing	B1 – Achiever
	B2 – Communicator
Spoken Exam	C1 – Expert
• Speaking	C2 – Mastery

LanguageCert International ESOL exams are available on demand:

- In Paper and Computer-based formats, at LanguageCert Approved Test Centres
- Online with live invigilation; taken anytime, anywhere

Giuliana Faldetta, Brand Engagement and Marketing Coordinator
International House World Organisation

London, UK

We are proud to work with LanguageCert, as their commitment to quality and innovation in their exams reflects the same high-quality commitment of International House World Organisation member schools!

Recognition

Here are examples of how LanguageCert International ESOL qualifications are accredited by governments and qualification regulators or recognised by industry authorities as meeting the requirements for English language proficiency.

The recognition of LanguageCert International ESOL qualifications is constantly growing, so please refer to languagecert.org for up-to-date information.

United Kingdom

Ofqual

LanguageCert is recognised by The Office of Qualifications and Examinations Regulation (Ofqual) as an Awarding Organisation, offering LanguageCert International ESOL (English for Speakers of Other Languages) qualifications. LanguageCert International ESOL qualifications (levels A1-C2) are regulated by Ofqual in the sector subject area “Languages, literature and culture of the British Isles”.

About Ofqual

Ofqual (the Office of Qualifications and Examinations Regulation) is a non-ministerial department that regulates qualifications, examinations and assessments in England.

Li Na, student, 15 years old

Bath, United Kingdom

Taking the test was a friendly process, and the interlocutor was nice and kind. After the test I felt much more confident that I can speak English, even to native speakers!

LanguageCert International ESOL qualifications are:

- a valid proof of English language proficiency for employers in the UK
- prerequisites for UK qualifications that require evidence of suitable English language proficiency
- evidence of English language proficiency to study at a UK or international university*

Qualifications Wales

LanguageCert is recognised as an Awarding Organisation by Qualifications Wales, a Welsh Government-sponsored body, responsible for the recognition of awarding bodies and the review and approval of non-degree qualifications in Wales.

LanguageCert International ESOL qualifications (levels A1-C2) are regulated in Wales by Qualifications Wales. The qualifications reside in the Regulated Qualifications Framework (RQF) from Entry Level 1 to 3 and Levels 1 to 3. They also map to the Credit and Qualifications Framework for Wales and Framework for Higher Education Qualifications. In addition, they map to the European Qualifications Framework, as portability is important to those looking for jobs or seeking to employ people from across the continent.

UCAS

LanguageCert is available on the UCAS Apply list. UCAS Apply includes LanguageCert as part of their listing (visible to applicants who have a UCAS profile) and students can select the following LanguageCert International ESOL qualifications as part of their application process, as appropriate proof of English language skills.

- LanguageCert Level 3 Certificate in ESOL International (Listening, Reading, Writing) (Mastery C2)
- LanguageCert Level 3 Certificate in ESOL International (Speaking) (Mastery C2)

About UCAS

UCAS Apply is a secure online application system that allows students to apply for full-time undergraduate courses, and some part-time courses for nursing and midwifery, at universities and colleges in the United Kingdom.

BAC

The British Accreditation Council (BAC) has included LanguageCert amongst its recognised external awarding bodies for English language qualifications according to its International English Language Provider (IELP) scheme.

BAC with more than 30 years' experience and expertise providing accreditation to independent further and higher educational institutions, has developed the IELP scheme to meet today's increasing global need for the delivery of high-quality English language education.

The purpose of the IELP scheme is to acknowledge the quality of institutions and training providers, encompassing teaching and assessment quality, learning experience for students, supporting institutions in their efforts to continually improve, and providing a rigorous inspection-based accreditation service that is evidence-based and dedicated to raising standards.

Recognition by many organisations and institutes of higher education in the UK*

Czech Republic

LanguageCert International ESOL qualifications have been recognised by the Czech Ministry of Education and are listed in the new Standardised Language Examinations list, at levels A1 to C2. The exams are listed in the new MŠMT “Maturita” list and are entitled to replace the so called “optional part” of the leaving exam (Maturita) in English. The Czech Ministry of Education is responsible for accrediting foreign language examination systems in the Czech Republic.

Valid proof of English for state employment

Recognition by major Czech universities*

Andrea M., Student, 16 years old

Prague, Czech Republic

It was convenient to take the exams when I was ready, as I sat for the Written exam while studying abroad, and for the Spoken exam once I returned home!

Greece

LanguageCert International ESOL qualifications have been recognised by ASEP (Supreme Council for Civil Personnel Selection) at levels B1, B2, C1 and C2.

About ASEP

The Supreme Council for Civil Personnel Selection is an independent commission, not subject to government control, responsible for the selection of personnel for the Greek public sector.

Valid proof of English for public & private sector employment

Recognition by many Greek universities and institutes of higher education*

Hungary

In order to comply with local regulatory requirements, LanguageCert International ESOL exams in Hungary have limited differences with the main suite and are set up as follows:

Written Exam	Spoken Exam
--------------	-------------

- | | |
|---|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Reading• Writing | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Listening• Speaking |
|---|--|

LanguageCert International ESOL Written and Spoken ESOL qualifications at Expert (C1), Communicator (B2), and Achiever (B1) levels are recognised by the Accreditation Board for Foreign Language Examinations in Hungary as meeting the language requirements for:

- bonus points for admission into higher education
- graduation from college/university degrees
- graduation from select vocational training courses
- language allowance (salary supplement) for civil servants.

The level of recognition required depends on the requirements set by the individual education or government institution*.

About the Accreditation Board for Foreign Language Examinations

The Accreditation Board for Foreign Language Examinations is a department of the Ministry of Education, responsible for accrediting foreign language examinations in Hungary.

Kinga Romhányi, student, 17 years old

Salgotarjan, Hungary

It was really good that I could use my English learned while watching Youtube videos and Internet-surfing to speak about different topics during the exam!

Italy

LanguageCert International ESOL qualifications are recognised in Italy by the Ministry of Education, Universities and Research (MIUR), at levels A1 to C2.

The B2 level “Communicator” qualification is accepted for PON scholarships

Recognition by many Italian universities*

About PON

PON (Programma Operativo Nazionale) is a European Union-funded investment programme that aims to strengthen the Italian education system and promote equitable access to high-quality education throughout the country. PON courses are three weeks long and consist of 60 hours of English lessons.

Barbara Santuz, Agent

Udine, Italy

We recommend LanguageCert International ESOL qualifications for numerous reasons! We can book on demand exams with only 10 days' notice, on dates that work for us and our students. Apart from the easy registration procedure, we particularly love that students receive their results in just ten days. All that makes the broadly recognised exams an ideal offering!

Lithuania

LanguageCert International ESOL qualifications are recognised in Lithuania by the Ministry of Education, Science and Sport, at levels B1, B2, C1 and C2.

New Zealand

LanguageCert International ESOL qualifications, levels B1 to C2, are officially on the list of examinations recognised by the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA), which is responsible for accrediting foreign language qualifications in New Zealand.

LanguageCert qualifications meet admission requirements for education in New Zealand:

Programme Level	LanguageCert IESOL (LRWS)
• Certificate at Level 3	B1 Achiever with PASS
• Certificate at Level 4	B2 Communicator with PASS
• Certificate or Diploma at Level 5	B2 Communicator with HIGH PASS

Recognition by major institutes of higher education in New Zealand*

Aspire2 International, Private Tertiary Educational Organisation

Auckland, New Zealand

We recommend the LanguageCert International ESOL exams to our students as added value to their courses and as a means to meet the requirements for tertiary study.

Anna P., Student, 16 years old

Auckland, New Zealand

Taking and succeeding in the LanguageCert International ESOL exam helped me a lot to be more confident about my English-speaking abilities!

Romania

LanguageCert International ESOL qualifications are officially on the list of examinations recognised by the Romanian Ministry of National Education and Scientific Research, which is responsible for accrediting foreign language qualifications in Romania.

Levels B1, B2, C1 and C2 of LanguageCert International ESOL qualifications are recognised as replacement to the national matriculation examinations (Maturita) in English. Students who hold any of these certificates may be exempted from taking the matriculation examinations. The level of recognition required depends on the requirements set by the individual education or government institution.

Bianca P., student, 15 years old

Constanta, Romania

The examination wasn't stressful at all, it was stimulating and very interesting. It was great that the Spoken exam was one-on-one, and it felt more like a discussion!

Spain

LanguageCert International ESOL qualifications are recognised by:

- ACLES (Association of Language Centres in Higher Education) at levels A2, B1, B2, C1 and C2
- CRUE Universidades Españolas (Conference of Chancellors of the Spanish Universities) as valid certification for English at levels A1, A2, B1, B2, C1 and C2

Recognition by many Spanish universities and institutes of higher education in the regions of: Andalusia, Aragon, Catalonia, Extremadura, Galicia, La Rioja, Madrid, Navarra, País Vasco and Valencia*

About ACLES

ACLES promotes the teaching and learning of modern languages in higher education, as well as the standardisation of proficiency levels, according to the guidelines set forth by the Council of Europe.

About CRUE

CRUE Universidades Españolas, as a non-profit association of 76 Universities in Spain, is responsible for the accreditation of foreign language qualifications for post-secondary studies in Spain.

Proof of language skills for teachers of public schools

Teachers who need to prove their English language competence in all four skills in order to work in public schools in Spain can rely on LanguageCert International ESOL qualifications. They must hold both Written (Listening, Reading, Writing) and Spoken (Speaking) certificates of the same level.

LanguageCert International ESOL qualifications are recognised by the official authorities in the following Spanish regions:

Region	Authority	LanguageCert International ESOL qualifications' levels
