An exciting day at the funfair

Anna's class and Miss Jones, their teacher, went to the funfair yesterday. They wanted to see the clown's show. They bought tickets and waited for the show to start. There were many people who had come to see the show. The students tried to stay close to each other, but it was difficult. "We lost Miss Jones!", said Anna.

Example

Where did Anna's class go?

to the funfair

Questions

1. When did the class go to the funfair?

2. What did they buy before the show?

"We can't look for Miss Jones now! The show is about to start!", said John, Anna's classmate. The show was great. The clown was very funny. She wore big shoes and a big scarf. At the end of the show, the clown asked, "Who wants a balloon animal?". "I do!", said Anna. The clown made a balloon giraffe and gave it to Anna.

3. What are John and Anna?
4. What did the clown wear on her neck? a
5. What animal did the clown make for Anna? a

Then, the clown asked Anna, "Do you like your teacher?". "Not when she gives us a lot of homework", said Anna. "Then, I will give you all more homework!", said the clown. The clown was Miss Jones, Anna's teacher! Miss Jones laughed and asked the students to write a page about the funfair for homework. Anna's classmates were cross with Anna for having more homework to do. But they were all happy again when Miss Jones made balloon animals for everyone!

6. Who was the clown? Anna's
7. How did the students feel about the extra homework?
8. What did Miss Jones use to make animals?
